“Charlie and the Chocolate Factory”

Orpheum Theatre

Willy Wonka is the most famous candy maker in the world, an eccentric confectioner whose sugary treats are works of genius. Yet he is a total recluse, and no one else in the world has ever stepped foot inside his famous chocolate factory. That is until a contest is announced! Inc: transportation and show (main floor seating).

Lafayette Club and Excelsior History

Arrive the Lafayette Club on the shores of Lake Minnetonka. “The Grand Old Lady of the Lake” is set on a hilltop overlooking Lafayette Bay. Presidents entertained diplomatic missions, and the famous sampled its beauties and have sung its praises over the years. We will have lunch overlooking the pristine grounds of the club. Menu: Lafayette House Salad, House Breads and Butter, Thymen-Crusted Chicken Breast, Yukon Gold- Whipped Potatoes, Garlic Beans, Trio of Sorbet, Berries, Pirouette Cookie, Coffee, Tea, Water. After lunch, meet local historian for a guided tour. This quaint village was the major port for steam boats in days gone by. Spend a few minutes shopping at the quaint stores along Water Street in downtown Excelsior. Inc: Transportation, lunch, and tour.

“Red Herring”

Gideon S. Ives Auditorium

Arrive at the elegant jewel-box auditorium on the 80-acre Heritage Center campus along the Minnesota River. Enjoy a delicious buffet lunch. The “Red Herring” three love stories, a murder mystery, and a nuclear espionage plot converge in this comedy about marriage and other explosive devices. It’s 1952. America’s on the verge of the H-bomb, Eisenhower’s on the campaign trail, and Senator Joe McCarthy’s daughter just got engaged to a Soviet spy. A sharp-eyed look at love and tying (and untying, and retying) the knot. Inc: Transportation, lunch and show.
